Asparagus, Goat Cheese and Tarragon Tart

4 oz fresh goat cheese, room temperature

1 large egg, lightly beaten, room temp

1 large garlic clove, finely grated

1 1/2 tbsp chopped fresh tarragon leaves

1/2 tbsp finely grated lemon zest

1/2 tsp fine sea salt

Pinch of freshly grated nutmeg

1 cup crème fraiche, room temp (8 oz)

All purpose flour for dusting work surface

1 sheet or square all butter puff pastry, thawed if frozen (9-14 oz)

8 oz thin asparagus, woody ends trimmed

Extra virgin olive oil

2 tbsp grated Parmesan

Freshly ground black pepper

Red-pepper flakes (if using)

1 1/2 oz Parmesan, shaved with a vegetable peeler (about 1/2 cu)

1. Heat oven to 425 degrees. In medium bowl, use fork to mash together goat cheese, egg, garlic, tarragon, lemon zest, salt and nutmeg until smooth. Switch to whisk and beat in the crème fraiche until smooth.
2. On lightly floured surface, roll out puff pastry into a 13" X 11" rectangle about 1/8" thick. Transfer the dough to parchment-lined cookie sheet. With a sharp knife, lightly score a 1/2-inch border around the edges of the puff pastry.
3. Spread the crème fraiche mixture evenly inside scored border. Line up asparagus spears on top, and brush them with olive oil. Sprinkle some salt and grated Parmesan over the asparagus.
4. Bake until pastry is puffed and golden, 25-30 minutes. Let it cool on the cookie sheet for at least 15 minutes or up to 4 hours before serving. Then sprinkle black pepper, red-pepper flakes (if using), the shaved Parmesan and tarragon leaves. Drizzle a little oil on top

From the President....

Hi everyone,

As kidding season is winding down throughout the country, many herds would normally be gearing up for show season but this has most certainly not been a “normal” year. Many herds from all over the country seem to have had a particularly hard, heart-breaking kidding season. Thoughts of upcoming summer shows, state fairs and National show were often what kept many going during those difficult times.

I have heard so many breeders lately on social media stating it’s not worth it and contemplating selling out. I’m guessing at some point in every breeder’s mind we’ve questioned ourselves about why do we go on. This is the time to go back to basics...to think about why you got your goats in the first place. Many go into goats because their kids need a 4-H project...but oftentimes the kids (human variety) grow up and leave but the goats stay. Why is that? Now is the time to ask yourself that....why do you keep dairy goats?

Take the time this summer to sit back and “smell the roses”. Watch your kids play in the sunshine, watch your does graze in a grassy field and just sit back and enjoy the lack of something to do! If you are on DHI test, enjoy watching your goats milk when they are simply “hanging out” at home. Hug your goats and get in touch with why you have them.....because they are amazing, loving, devoted creatures that enrich our lives and make our lives more worthwhile!

While this has been disappointing year with linear appraisal cancelled, National Show cancelled and many local shows and fairs also cancelling, we will get back to normal eventually. And when we do, and we are rushing around getting ready for a show, think back to this quiet time and the love you felt for your goats.

Stay safe everyone.....we will make it together!
